

Russian animation films for Vladopera's friends

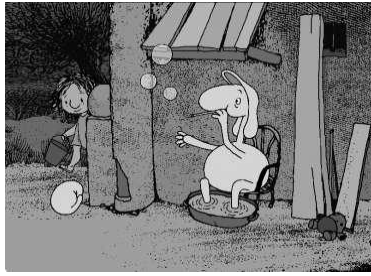

Cannstater Kulturmenü 2013

The curators and filmmakers Leonid Shmelkov from Moscow will present the program of russian contemporary animation films. Some films from the recognized masters, and some from the well talented students from russian animation school "SHAR".

Various topics, various technics, various dates of creation but all this films are really great and all of them are made from the heart.

Program from 4th of March 2013. There may be some changes until June.

Wind along the coast

Ivan Maximov / 6 min / 2003

A lyrical and funny story about the hard life of a village on the coast suffering from the high winds.

Ivan Maximov is a famous russian animation director. He had made over 15 films in his own specific style. His animation film "Bolero" was awarded with golden bear on Berlinale in 1993.

Christmas

Mikhail Aldashin / 14 min / 1996

Christmas miracle in animation. Music by Ludwig van Beethoven and Sebastian Bach.

Great topic and outstanding realization by the big master Mikhail Aldashin.

Rain in the Evening (So vechora dojdik)

Valentin Olshvang / 15 min / 2009

Based on Russian folk tale by Alexei Tolstoy "Mermaid"

One of the best russian animation filmmakers from Ekaterinburg Valentin Olshvang and this is his last film. Very touching, artistic and full of russian traditional spirit.

Wait, Be So Kind (Podojdi pojalui)

Elizaveta Skvortsova / 7min

A wonderfully touching tale about love.

Elizaveta Skvorcova is a young filmmaker, well known in the world of animation after her cycle of short animation films "Lullabies of the World". Here is presented her graduation work.

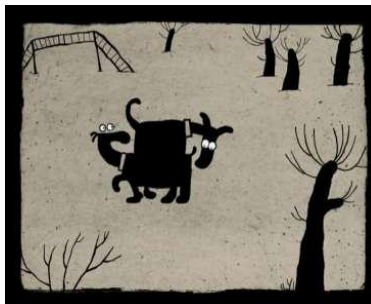

Nurka's Bathhouse

Oksana Cherkasova / 10 min / 1995

According to the old tradition of the Urals in the morning before the wedding, the whole family wash in the bath...

And this film is also about russian spirit and traditions. Directly from the real russian bath in the far villages. And the same this film is a real masterpiece.

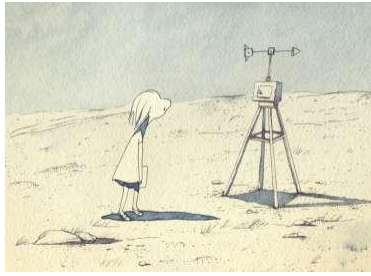

Dog-walking ground

Leonid Shmelkov / 8 min / 2009

An automated pooper-scooper observes the habits of dog walkers and their dogs.

Leonid Shmelkov is the curator of this program so we were forced to show his film. Be careful, it is a bit strange.

Young russian animation

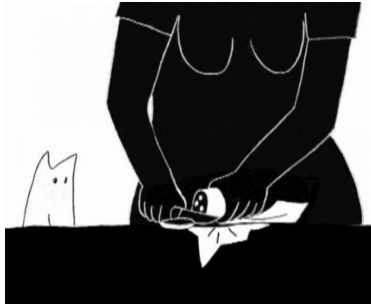

Coast warning

Shadrina Alexandra / 8 min / 2010

The story of the two shy people, inside and around them rages a great gale. LOVE under adverse weather conditions.

Alexandra is young filmmaker and brilliant painter, it is her graduation film, that has many awards and sincere admirers all over the world. This film was included in the program by Leonid Shmelkov.

Young russian animation

Umba-Umba

Konstantin Brilliantov / 7 min / 2012

A story about the colliers, whose life, like a light on the helmet, can shine brightly and suddenly go off.

Laconic technics, brilliant rhythm and amazing plot of this film made it one of the best student works of the last year.

Young russian animation

Pishto Goes Away

Sofia Kendel / 10 min / 2012

One autumn, Pishto gets so sick and tired of everything that he decides to leave for good.

It is touching story about russian people and life. Good direction, beautiful picture and the best russian animation film of the year 2012 according critics association.

Young russian animation

Caution, the doors are opening

Anastasia Zhuravleva / 5 min / 2005

A day in the life of a pocket subway

Have you ever been in the Moscow underground? It is a good opportunity to do this virtually. Moscow people very often lose buttons in the trains. It is a story about this and of course also about love.

Young russian animation

The program is curated and presented by:
Leonid Shmelkov, Moscow
Alexandra Shadrina, Moscow
krasnoborod@gmail.com / +7 916 5017298